

TE NEHENEHENUI ELECTIONS 2023

TE RŌPŪ WHAKAHAERE

THE TRANSITION FROM REGIONAL MANAGEMENT COMMITTEES TO TE RŌPŪ WHAKAHAERE

WHAT ARE NGĀ WHARE O TE NEHENEHENUI?

Each Whare o Te Nehenehenui represents a region / marae grouping within the rohe (as displayed below). These regions were previously known as Regional Management areas under the Maniapoto Māori Trust Board. A list of marae associated to each Whare can be viewed on page 3 of this overview.

WHAT IS A TE RŌPŪ WHAKAHAERE?

“Te Rōpū Whakahaere” is a group of Representatives appointed by Marae, for a Whare o Te Nehenehenui. There are seven Whare o Te Nehenehenui, formerly known as Regional Management Committees (RMC's).

Appointment of members to Te Rōpū Whakahaere - Each registered Marae shall be entitled to appoint two (2) members to sit on the Te Rōpū Whakahaere for the Whare o Te Nehenehenui in which the marae is located. No person may be a Te Rōpū Whakahaere Member for more than one Marae.

PURPOSE OF TE RŌPŪ WHAKAHAERE:

The purpose of Te Rōpū Whakahaere shall be to advise the Trustees and support the activities of Te Nehenehenui at a regional level, which include the following:

- a. each support the election of one (1) Ngā Kura Tau Trustee to represent each Whare o Te Nehenehenui in accordance with the rules in the Second Schedule;
- b. represent whānau and hapū at a regional level;
- c. represent the region in land, water and environmental matters at a regional level, consistent with tribal goals and aspirations;
- d. promote the exercise of mana whakahaere by whānau and hapū over cultural redress sites returned as part of the settlement;
- e. collaborate with key partners to support regional development, consistent with tribal goals and aspirations;
- f. lead the facilitation of regional opportunities to support regional growth and opportunities; and
- g. lead initiatives at a regional level agreed by the Trustees as tribal priorities for development.

The Trustees may develop a plan setting out the functions of Te Rōpū Whakahaere more comprehensively as the Trustees shall think fit.

WHAT RESPONSIBILITY DO TE NEHENEHENUI TRUSTEES HAVE?

The Trustees will work with Te Rōpū Whakahaere to develop (within 1 year of the Settlement Date) a structure for Te Rōpū Whakahaere decision-making and accountability to all marae within their region and to the Trustees.

The Trustees will work with Te Rōpū Whakahaere to develop a regional development plan (within 2 years of the Settlement Date).

Each Te Rōpū Whakahaere may provide advice to the Trustees on any area falling within its interests to assist the Trustees.

Each Te Rōpū Whakahaere shall make such reports and recommendations to the Trustees as the Trustees may from time-to-time request.

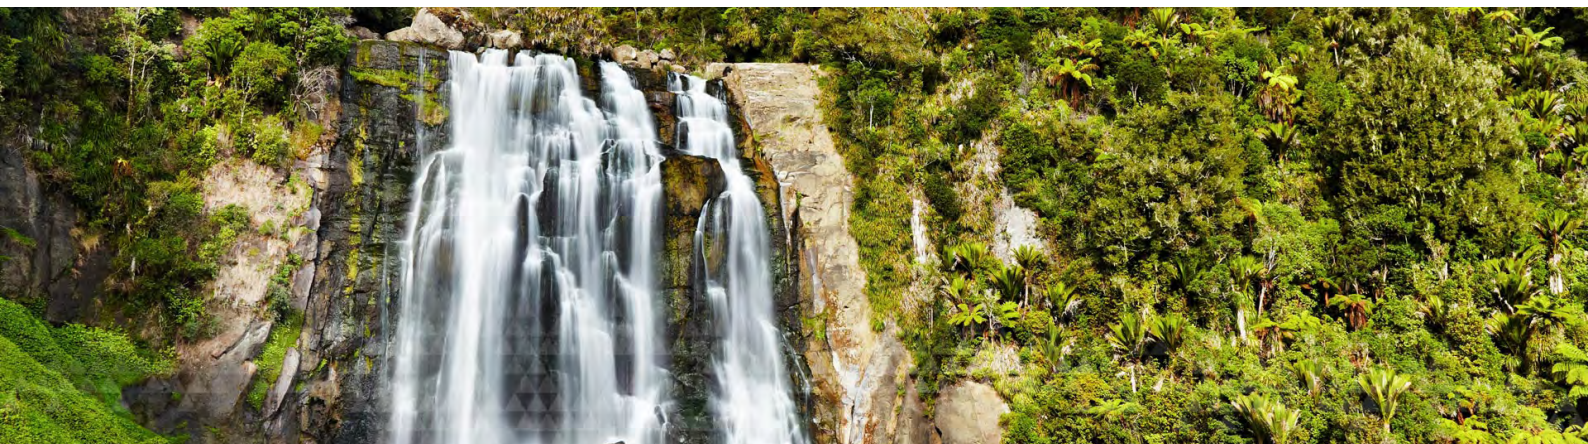

PROCEDURES OF TE RŌPŪ WHAKAHAERE:

The Trustees will ensure that Te Rōpū Whakahaere shall:

- a. operate in accordance with such rules, meeting procedures and processes as they may from time to time prescribe consistent with the tikanga of Maniapoto; and
- b. be convened from time to time as they determine.

COSTS OF MEETINGS OF TE RŌPŪ WHAKAHAERE:

Te Nehenehenui may, in the Trustees' discretion, contribute to the reasonable costs associated with meetings of the Te Rōpū Whakahaere in connection with the matters stated in the Deed.
